Severe Tropical Storm #FranciscoPH nears typhoon status, according to Pagasa, adding that enhanced Habagat will trigger heavy rains starting Monday, June 22, 2026.

It said that while Francisco remains over the Philippine Sea and is less likely to make direct landfall, it is steadily gaining strength and pulling the Southwest Monsoon (Habagat).

📍 Location of Francisco: 1,170 kiometers east of southeastern Luzon
💨 Intensity: Max sustained winds of 110 km/h near the center, with gusts up to 135 km/h. It is expected to reach typhoon category today.
🗺️ Movement: Moving Northwestward at 25 km/h.

⚠️ Wind Signals: None raised yet, but TCWS No. 1 may be hoisted over Batanes, Babuyan Islands, and parts of Cagayan by tomorrow morning. | via Pagasa

Sa mga amang lumalaban hindi lang para sa anak nila kundi laban sa sistemang hindi kayang magbigay ng agarang katarungan, happy fathers' day.

For further context: Inilagay ng isang ama sa kanyang mga kamay ang batas dahil nababagalan umano siya sa usad ng hustisya sa bansa. Isang karpintero sa QC ang b*naril at napatay matapos i-set up ng ama ng biktima na hinalay nito dalawang taon na ang nakaraan. Umamin ang ama na siya ang utak sa krimen dahil sa labis na galit at bagal ng hustisya sa bansa.

1. Ang journalism ay may editor, verification, correction, at legal accountability.
2. Ang propaganda content ay madalas una ang conclusion, huli ang ebidensya.
3. Hindi porke viral, totoo. Hindi porke maraming views, verified.
4. Kung mali ang report, sagutin ng dokumento at ebidensya — hindi ng sigaw na 'fake news.'
5. Hindi banal ang media, pero mas may proseso silang managot kaysa sa content farming na may agenda.

1. Ang journalism ay may editor, verification, correction, at legal accountability.
2. Ang propaganda content ay madalas una ang conclusion, huli ang ebidensya.
3. Hindi porke viral, totoo. Hindi porke maraming views, verified.
4. Kung mali ang report, sagutin ng dokumento at ebidensya — hindi ng sigaw na 'fake news.'
5. Hindi banal ang media, pero mas may proseso silang managot kaysa sa content farming na may agenda.

accessible, pedestrian-friendly, and visually cohesive corner.

Rather than viewing the proposal as an erasure of history, it can be seen as an adaptation to contemporary urban needs.

The removal of the road feature would reduce vehicular conflicts at a busy intersection, improve connectivity throughout the Capitol grounds, and reestablish the Casa Real and the Arroyo Fountain as key visual and symbolic anchors of the government center.

CONJOINED TWINS
AGE: ADOBE STOCK
CONJOINED TWINS
DEFINITION
Conjoined twins are two babies who are born physically connected to each other. They are the result of a single fertilized egg that doesn't fully separate into two individuals during early embryo development.
INCIDENCE
Conjoined twins occur in approximately 1 in every 50,000 to 100,000 live births. The condition is more common among female fetuses, with a female-to-male ratio of 3:1.
CONJOINED TWINS
HOW TWINS ARE JOINED
The twins may be connected at any of the following areas:
Chest. Thoracopagus twins are joined face to face at the chest.
Abdomen. Omphalopagus twins are connected near the navel.
Base of spine. Pygopagus twins are usually joined back to back at the lower spine and buttocks.
Length of spine. Rachipagus twins are joined back to back along the spine.
Pelvis. Ischiopagus twins are connected at the pelvis, either face to face or end to end.
Head. Craniopagus twins are connected at the back, top, or side of the head, but not at the face.
Head and chest. Cephalopagus twins are joined at the head an upper body.

REMEMBERING TYPHOON FRANK🌀

June 21, 2008, saktong 18 taon ngayong araw, nanalasa ang isa sa pinakamapaminsalang bagyong #TyphoonFrank sa probinsya ng Aklan.

Hindi makakalimutan ang nasabing bagyo dahil sa nagdala ito ng malalim na pagbaha at makapal na putik sa bayan ng Kalibo na nagresulta ng malawak na pinsala sa imprastraktura, negosyo, at mga kabahayan.

Libo-libong mga residente noon ang naapektuhan habang bilyon-bilyong piso ang halaga ng pinsala kabilang ang sa sektor ng agrukultura.

KA-K5 NASAAN KA NG NANALASA ANG BAGYONG FRANK?

‘FROM TITO VINCE TO MY ACTUAL DAD’ ❤️

Tyronia Fowler, daughter of social media personality Toni Fowler, penned a sweet message to her stepfather, Vince Flores, whom she used to call “Tito Vince.”

“To [Tito Vince]👩🏽, who became my actual dad, thank you for accepting me as your daughter. Having you in our lives has made everything so much easier in so many ways. You always do your best for us every single day, and we truly appreciate all your love, care, and sacrifices,” she wrote in a TikTok post on Sunday.

“Thank you, Dadeh. We love you so much! ❤️,” she added, noting that Father’s Day is not only for biological fathers, but also for those who choose to love, guide, and fully accept children as their own.

Flores also has a one-year-old biological son with Toni Fowler. (TikTok/Tyronia Fowler)

Atty. Levito Baligod just called me a paid propagandist.

Bold accusation from a man whose “18 Maleta / ex-Marines” story needs damage control faster than a fake resumé in a Senate hearing.

Maybe focus first on fixing your own narrative, counselor. Because from where the public is standing, your story is not merely weak. It is limping, sweating, and asking for a recess.

Fact: the allegation involved so-called former Marines supposedly delivering suitcases of cash to politicians and public figures, allegedly upon Zaldy Co’s instructions. Fact: the amount floated was around ₱805 billion. Fact: Baligod himself claimed the deliveries used planes and helicopters.

At that point, sir, hindi na iyan affidavit. Iyan ay rejected script ng political teleserye with logistics by Lazada.

₱805 billion in cash? In suitcases? Through aircraft? To houses? Without a clean chain of custody, withdrawal trail, manifest, CCTV, pilot logs, security logs, serial numbers, bank records, AMLC trail, or people outside the 18 confirming the movement?

Jun 21, 2026 18:27:04

the movement?

Counselor, even Monopoly money needs a box.

Let us do kindergarten arithmetic, since apparently the Constitution now needs a calculator.

₱805 billion in ₱1,000 bills means 805 million pieces of paper money. Eight hundred five million bills. Kahit ipagpalagay mong magic wallet ang gamit, that is not “nag-abot ng maleta.” That is a national logistics operation. That amount does not quietly pass through elevators, lobbies, airports, helipads, residences, security gates, and staff rooms without leaving a documentary trail bigger than some government agencies.

And if one suitcase allegedly carried ₱50 million to ₱70 million, that means 50,000 to 70,000 pieces of ₱1,000 bills per suitcase. Hindi iyan “dala ko lang, boss.” Iyan ay gym program with procurement issues.

Let us talk weight, Counselor. A standard banknote weighs one gram. Eight hundred five million bills weigh 805,000 kilograms. That is 805 metric tons of cash. You do not move 805 metric tons in maletas via civilian helicopters. You move that with a convoy of 18-wheeler trucks, a forklift, and a prayer. Hindi ito bank withdrawal, sir. It’s a mining operation.

withdrawal, sir. Ito ay mining operation.

And then the “18 Marines” branding itself had problems. The Philippine Navy reportedly said four of the 18 were never members of the Navy or Marine Corps, while majority of the others were dishonorably discharged. So even the title of the movie needs a fact-check before the opening credits.

Tapos may dagdag-bawas pa sa cast.

Leila de Lima was dragged in, then her inclusion was later treated as a mistake or oversight. Loren Legarda was linked, then Baligod later said there was no adequate evidence tying her to a cash handoff. Kiko Pangilinan’s photo was flashed like some smoking gun, then Baligod later admitted the wrong photo was used and clarified that the so-called Marines did not accuse Kiko of receiving maleta money.

Kiko. Leila. Loren.

Dagdag. Bawas. Clarify. Correct. Withdraw. Explain.

You drag names through the mud on national television, and your apology is a quiet 'ay, mali' in a follow-up interview? That is not a clarification. That is reckless endangerment of reputations.

Jun 21, 2026 18:27:11

Sir, affidavit ba ito o attendance sheet ng

You drag names through the mud on national television, and your apology is a quiet 'ay, mali' in a follow-up interview? That is not a clarification. That is reckless endangerment of reputations.

Sir, affidavit ba ito o attendance sheet ng reunion na ginamitan ng wrong group chat?

If your accusation is that massive, your facts should not be acting like interns on their first day. Hindi puwedeng “ay, hindi pala siya kasama,” “ay, maling picture pala,” “ay, initial affidavit lang pala,” after you already threw names into the national blender.

The affidavit problem is even worse. Eighteen men, one sweeping story, one joint affidavit. The Ombudsman himself wanted individual affidavits because personal knowledge matters. Hindi puwedeng pinagtagpi-tagping kuwento, tapos ibebenta as one clean narration. In court, that is not thunder. That is static.

You are an attorney, sir. You went to law school, passed the Bar, and presumably know the Rules of Court. Yet you submitted a joint affidavit for 18 different people with supposedly different personal knowledge? That is not a legal strategy ; that is a shortcut for a lazy screenwriter. When the Ombudsman himself has to remind a lawyer that individual claims require individual affidavits, you should probably stop giving press conferences and start reviewing your law school notes.

Jun 21, 2026 18:27:21

And then Baligod later said the affidavit was only “initial,” and that photos, videos, and details would supposedly come later before the Ombudsman.

Very convenient.

You hold a press conference first. You drop names first. You let the damage spread first. Then when people ask for proof, biglang “doon na namin ilalabas lahat.”

That is not how evidence works. That is how blind items reproduce.

The law is not karaoke. Confidence is not evidence. Volume is not verification. A press conference is not a washing machine where you can throw in names, photos, suitcases, helicopters, ICC, billion-peso claims, and hope everything comes out clean.

So before you call me a paid propagandist, Counselor, look in the mirror. I am simply pointing out the gaping holes in your story using basic math, logic, and your own public retractions. I do not need to be paid to see that your narrative is falling apart, I just need eyes.

Jun 21, 2026 18:27:24

Because unlike your maleta narrative, my point does not need a corrected photo, an “initial affidavit,” a withdrawn name, a later clarification, or a “doon na namin ilalabas lahat” sequel.

Maybe the real problem is not that people are paid to criticize you.

Maybe the problem is that you are offering the public a script so badly written, even an unpaid intern would not dare submit it.

You called me a propagandist. I call you a fictionist.

The difference is, my math checks out.

I was definitely pleased that you did decide to post this video, despite the trouble you had with getting a keyboard and mouse to work. I followed the various member posts in which you described the issues you had, and was surprised that you went ahead with posting this video. I had a feeling that, because of the problems, this would have meant we wouldn't see a video about this SBC, but I am very pleased we did.

BASURANG NAGDULOT NG BAHA?

Naipong mga basura sa steel grating, naging sanhi ng pagbaha sa bahagi ng EDSA Main Ave. Cubao, Quezon City ngayong gabi, June 21, 2026.

Humupa naman kaagad ang tubig-baha matapos alisin ng ilang residente ang mga basura.
